

Children's Events at Camden Public Library September 2017

It's hard to believe that school is back in session! Summer is coming to an end, but we had a SUPER summer reading program and kids read 878 states! 9 kids read a book from every state! 70 paperback books were awarded! Remember, as school starts... to keep reading, 20 min. every day. Check out your school library and visit us at the public library for advice on great books or just come find them yourself!

YA Book-Lovers books club!

For anyone who loves reading Young Adult books and wants to share our passion for them, please come Tues. 9-26 from 4-5 pm and be reading to share your favorite YA read. Format going forward will be discussed!

Babbling Books continues in the Children's Room at 10:00 on Monday mornings and is geared toward preschool and toddlers. This is an informal story time, great for busy bodies!

All Pre-school Story Hours are back in full swing!

Join Miss Amy Thursdays at 10:00 for 4 & 5 year olds, and on Fridays at 10:00 for 2 & 3 year olds. Enjoy the magic and wonder of reading through books, rhymes, songs, flannel board stories, finger plays, puppets, dramatic play and thematic crafts.
